NER AT MISSOURI PACIFIC SHOPS.

DESPONDENT OVER DEATH OF A R

Slashed Throat From Ear to His Room at the Delmar
—Is Now at Katy Hospi-
—Will Recover.

Despondent over the death of his twin brother, George Feller, Cincinnati, O., a week ago last, Charles Feller, aged 33, employed in the Missouri Pacific tin shop in city, slashed his throat with a razor in room No. 32, on the third of the Delmar hotel, Lamine and Main street, at 11:30 o'clock Sunday forenoon.

Dr. Charles McNeil, Dr. A. M. P. bell, Dr. K. R. Barnum and Dr. F. R. Morley were summoned, after working with the patient two hours, saved his life.

He was removed to the M. T. hospital, where it was said a fair chance for recovery.

Feller slashed his throat at different times, cutting the skin from ear to ear and completely severed the windpipe. Dr. Campbell at the gashes.

One week ago last Thursday, Feller, who has been rooming at the Delmar hotel, received a telephone call from his brother who was dying in Cincinnati. He left for there once. While en route there his brother died. Returning here last week, Feller continually brooded over his brother's death until it affected his health.

At 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning he entered the hotel lobby and asked James Cummings, a member of the Salvation Army, if he had a razor. Feller said he wanted to practice shooting. He then sat in a chair and began crying.

A minute later he left the hotel lobby and proceeded to room on the third floor. Cummings, the suspicious and notified the police. He then followed Feller to latter's room, and, throwing open the door, found Feller lying on the floor with his throat slashed from ear to ear and blood spurting in all directions.

Dr. Charles McNeil, the first physician to arrive. The other physicians followed shortly.

Restoratives to assist breathing were administered to the patient, and after Dr. Campbell had sewed the gashes, Feller motioned a pencil and piece of paper.

Assisted by the physician, he wrote in a neat hand these words: "For two days I could not see; just dizzy. Don't send telegram home; folks all upset now."

"Headache was very bad all the time."

While writing the note, Feller frequently stopped and put his hand to his head, evidencing the fact that he could not think.

Feller has been employed at the shops for several weeks and had been boarding at the hotel since April 1. He is a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at Chase, Mo. He has a father, a brother and two married sisters living in Cincinnati.

A PLUM FOR "TO" AKINS

Appointed Postmaster of St. Louis by the President.

Associated Press.

Washington, May 8.—President Taft today appointed Thomas J. Akins as postmaster at St. Louis, Mo., to succeed Mr. Wyman.

PATTEN, THE WHEAT KING

He Declined to Be Interviewed While in Kansas.

Associated Press.

Hutchinson, Kas., May 8.—James A. Patten, of Chicago, the so-called wheat king, passed through Hutchinson this morning, on his way to Chicago. He declined to be interviewed while here.

LOOKS BLUE FOR THE "DRYS"

Outlook Is Not Bright for Statewide Prohibition.

Associated Press.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 8.—A consideration of the senate amendments to the prohibition joint resolution will be begun by the house Tuesday. Efforts for immediate consideration were unavailing.

The delay is considered dangerous to the ultimate success of the measure, as many legislators are leaving the capital for their homes, owing to the reduction to a dollar a day in their pay.

Fine Rain Fell Saturday.

This section was visited by a fine rain Saturday. At 7 o'clock a. m. it came down in a regular deluge, and was followed later by gentle showers during the day. While rain was not needed badly, it was appreciated, and will prove of incalculable value to growing crops.

WILL SURPRISE FRIENDS

POPULAR YOUNG SEDALIA COUPLE TO BE MARRIED JUNE 22.

MISS MARY SILER AND CHARLES DOBEL

Ceremony Will Take Place at St. Patrick's Church at Early Nuptial Mass—Spend Honeymoon in Kansas City.

A wedding that will cause surprise among the numerous acquaintances of the contracting parties will be solemnized in June, when Charles Dobel, a well known Missouri Pacific machinist, and Miss Mary J. Siler, daughter of George L. Siler, a railway conductor, of 321 South Engineer avenue, will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The event will occur Tuesday, June 22, at nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church at 6 a. m., the pastor, the Rev. Fr. B. R. McNamee, officiating.

After a wedding breakfast the bridal couple will go to Kansas City to spend their honeymoon, and on returning here will go to housekeeping in Dr. H. B. Cole's residence, on East Broadway.

Only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends will attend the wedding, which will be a quiet affair in every particular.

Miss Siler will tender her resignation as an operator at the local exchange of the Bell Telephone Co. within a few days, to take effect on June 1.

Mr. Dobel is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dobel, two of Sedalia's most estimable citizens, and has hundreds of friends in Sedalia and elsewhere, who will learn of his approaching marriage with pleasure.

Miss Siler, by her charming manner and affable disposition, has endeared herself to every acquaintance, all of whom will take pleasure in joining the Democrat-Sentinel in extending congratulations.

A SOAKING RAIN FELL

It Was Greatly Needed in Some Portions Visited.

Associated Press.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—A soaking rain fell generally over the north-eastern part of Kansas early today. That section has been suffering from dry weather and the rain will be a great benefit to the growing grain.

At Topeka an inch of water fell. The local weather bureau also reports light rains in other portions of Kansas, Western Missouri and Oklahoma.

PREPARING FOR A STRIKE

French Premier Will Resign Rather Than Make Terms.

Associated Press.

Paris, May 8.—Both the government and the employees of the posts and telegraphs are today rapidly marshaling their forces for the impending strike, which probably will begin Tuesday.

Premier Clemenceau declares he will resign rather than make terms.

A New Electric Sign.

M. Chasoff Saturday purchased of a Chicago sign house an electric sign which he will have placed in front of his Ohio street store. The sign will be the first of its kind in Sedalia, and is new in the middle west. It is, however, used extensively in the east.

GOING UP!

MRS. BOYLE ALSO GUILTY

CONVICTED OF COMPLICITY IN THE KIDNAPING OF MASTER WILLIE WHITLA.

REACHED A VERDICT ON FIRST BALLOT

Fair but Frail Prisoner Says if She and "Jimmie" Go to the Penitentiary They Will Not Make Trip Alone.

Associated Press.

Mercer, Pa., May 8.—The jury returned a verdict finding Mrs. James Boyle guilty as indicted, or guilty of aiding and abetting in the kidnaping of Willie Whitla, this morning. The verdict was reached on the first ballot.

Court had adjourned, however, until 1:30 this afternoon, and the verdict could not be reported till that hour.

"If Jimmie and I are sent to the penitentiary," said Mrs. Boyle today, "we will not go alone. Half the truth in this case has not been told yet, and the one man who planned the whole thing has not been arrested."

The name of Patrick Buhl, the millionaire steel man, uncle of little Willie Whitla, was dropped into the trial Friday in a sensational manner.

It was testified by two Cleveland detectives that Mrs. Helen Boyle, when arrested in Cleveland, used Buhl's name in a most interesting way, alleging that her arrest was a mistake, and that she would never be taken to Sharon because "Buhl was as strong in the case" and she and her husband were.

Throughout the proceedings Boyle and his wife apparently desired to bring out the name of another person, said to have been connected with the case.

Declaring he had not had a fair trial and that he wanted to tell the whole truth about the kidnaping case, Boyle created a commotion in the court room. It was with difficulty that he was prevented from telling his version of the affair.

Boyle was put on the stand for the state and was asked to produce the first letter to Mr. Whitla demanding $10,000 ransom.

Without any reference to the letter, Boyle almost shouted out:

"I want to tell the whole truth about this case now. I want the whole thing cleared up. I was not to blame. The whole blame was on someone else."

Attorneys for both state and defense, the court officials and even

Judge Miller himself, took part in the effort to stop Boyle's tongue.

In her cell, Mrs. Boyle said: "Both Jimmie and myself have tried to tell the whole story. We have not been permitted to do so. It is not justice. Everything should be heard and thrashed out. As for myself, I will commit suicide before I will go to the penitentiary."

Great public interest is manifested over the question whether the Boyles will be allowed to state what is on their minds.

As both cases have been closed, the only chance the Boyles will have will be when called on to say why sentence should not be pronounced. Buhl was not in the court room during any part of the woman's trial, but

'TEDDY' FOR NEXT MAYOR

EX-PRESIDENT IS NOW BOOMED FOR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF NEW YORK CITY.

GENERAL S. L. WOODFORD FAVORS IT

Also Other Republican Leaders Are for Him for Governorship in the Empire State—Has Not Yet Received His Sanction.

Hearst News Service.

New York, May 8.—The World this morning says:

A boom for Roosevelt for Mayor of New York was launched today by General Stewart L. Woodford and other "war lords" in the republican camp.

It has not only the backing of General Woodford's prestige, but has the support of other leaders who have for years been identified with republican politics and policies.

It is admitted that the boom has neither the knowledge nor the consent of Mr. Roosevelt, but those back of it believe there will be such insistent demand for him that he will cut short his hunting trip and return to lead the campaign.

Here to Attend Father's Funeral.

L. S. Farnham, of Kansas City; Lant Farnham, of Sapulpa, Ok., and Mrs. Lou Crawford, also of Kansas City, arrived Saturday to attend the funeral of their father, A. Farnham, who died suddenly at Payette, Idaho, Friday.

TOWN LOT FRAUD CASES

DEMURRERS OF GOV. HASKELL AND ASSOCIATES OVER- RULED BY COURT.

JUDGE CAMPBELL RENDERED DECISION

Ruling Practically Decides Cases on Their Merits Against the Defendants—Great Excitement at Muskogee.

Associated Press.

Muskogee, Okla., May 8.—Federal Judge Campbell here today overruled the demurrers of the defendants in the so-called Creek Indian land suits, involving millions of dollars' worth of Muskogee town lots, brought by the government against Governor Haskell and other prominent Oklahomans. The judge's ruling practically decides the cases on their merits against the defendants.

These suits were brought by the United States government for the Creek Indian nation to recover for the tribe Muskogee town lots, aggregating 3,000 acres, alleged to have been obtained by Governor Haskell and other defendants by fraudulent scheduling of "dummies."

Out of these civil suits grew a criminal prosecution against the governor and others, for which they were once indicted.

The decision of Judge Campbell created great excitement here. Not only is Governor Haskell and his associates involved charged with fraud, but about fifteen hundred subsequent purchasers of lots are vitally interested. The judge announced, however, that all innocent purchasers will be protected.

Judge Marshall May Preside.

Tulsa, Okla., May 8.—It is announced here today that Judge John A. Marshall, of Utah, will preside over the grand jury investigation into the Muskogee town lots frauds, involving Governor Haskell and other prominent Oklahomans, which begins here Monday.

ERNEST PEARSON MARRIED

Bride Is Annie Laurie Gregg of Pleasant Hill, Mo.

Ernest W. Pearson, cashier at the offices of the United States Packing Co. in this city, and Miss Annie Laurie Gregg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gregg, of Pleasant Hill, were united in wedlock by the Rev. Denham, pastor of the Pleasant Hill Christian church, at the home of the bride's parents at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Only immediate relatives attended the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding supper, and the bridal couple left at once for Kansas City for a brief honeymoon. They will return here and will be at home to their friends at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pearson, 214 West Fifth street.

Mr. Pearson is one of Sedalia's best known and most energetic young men. He has a legion of friends in this city who will learn of the event with surprise, at the same time extending hearty congratulations to him and the estimable young lady who has taken his name for life.

PATTEN IS ON WAY HOME

REGRETS CORNERING MARKET ON ACCOUNT OF INCREASED PRICE OF BREAD.

HIS LIFE NOT IN VERY MUCH DANGER

He Left Chicago to Avoid Newspaper Men—Was in Kansas City Saturday on His Way Home—Time Right to Make Money.

Hearst News Service.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—"There is only one thing which I deplore that has come as a result of my operations in wheat, and that is the effect it has had on the people by increasing the price of bread," said James A. Patten, the wheat king, as he passed through Kansas City this afternoon, on his way from Trinidad, Col., to Chicago.

Patten declared that he was not a speculator, that speculation had no part in any of his operations, that he had simply foreseen conditions and had taken advantage of the most favorable situation that has occurred in years.

"I did not leave Chicago because I was afraid," he said, in answer to a question, "but simply and solely to get away from newspaper men."

"There is not the least truth in the statement that my life is in danger. It has never been so to my knowledge, and I have taken no precautions for safety."

"I can see no reason why so much controversy should have been created on my account."

"My firm is, and always has been, one of the largest cash dealers in wheat. I have never made any secret of my operations and I have predicted just what has come to pass."

"As for this year's wheat, it does not look very good. Western Kansas has not had a drop of rain and wheat is dry and thin. Probably all of Oklahoma's wheat will go to Texas. Kansas City will not get much of it. Let me explain my position by asking this question, 'Why is Kansas City paying more for wheat than is paid in Chicago?' Simply because it is not here."

"Kansas and contiguous territory long ago got rid of most of the wheat and today they need it. It is the same all over the country."

ACTRESS SUED FOR DIVORCE

Bertha Mills Made Defendant in Suit Filed at St. Joseph.

Hearst News Service.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 8.—Frank J. Davy, of Los Angeles, the Salt Lake route's traveling passenger agent, filed suit here today for a divorce from the comic opera star, known professionally as Bertha Mills who is now at the head of the "Queen of the Moulin Rouge" company in New York.

She was formerly with Richard Carle and company, and was the soprano soloist in the First Presbyterian church here until two years ago.

Desertion is the ground advanced for the divorce. She went east to study for the stage and Davy went to California.

WESTON IS NOW IN KANSAS

Left Perry at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning.

Associated Press.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—Edward Payson Weston started westward from Perry, Kas., on his walk to the Pacific coast at 8 o'clock this morning.

MANY PUPILS ADVANCED

AS THE RESULT OF FINAL EXAMINATIONS IN THE COUNTRY SCHOOLS.

ATTACKED STEAMER BERLIN

Non-Union Men at Duluth Seek to Avenge Fancied Wrongs.

Hearst News Service. Duluth, Minn., May 8.—Union men attacked the crew of the steamer Berlin at Superior tonight, and one of the attacking party, James Rook, aged 30, was shot dead during a fusillade which lasted several minutes. The mob then fled, carrying several wounded.

The Berlin, which is manned by non-union men, pulled out into the stream to avoid another attack, and the trouble subsided.

This was the first disorder in the harbor since the beginning of the lake strike. No arrests have been made, but the police say the slaver will be taken into custody.

The Weather Forecast.

Sunday partly cloudy, with colder
east and south portion.

COMING HOME?

Back to Sedalia, the beautiful Queen City, and visit again the scenes of years gone by.

The Home Coming reunion will be held October 2, 3, 4 and 5, during the week of the Missouri state fair.

The semi-centennial of the founding of the city will be celebrated, and a grand welcome will be extended to all who gather to commemorate the event.

There are ex-Sedalians everywhere, but they will all be here again at the Home Coming.

WHEN WOMEN SIT STILL.

It is strange, but true, that the plan to provide separate cars for the ladies on the New York subway is meeting with the most opposition from the fair sex, rather than from the brutes of men. The women allege that were the cars made separate there would not be enough accommodations, and that more women would be standing than is now the case.

Men are prone to get up and give their seats to women, the paragraph-ers and their strap-hanger jokes notwithstanding. Women, however, are not so brisk at the rising act in a crowded car. It is noticeable in a crowded car that when a woman with a babe in her arms comes in, or a couple of kiddlets hanging to her skirts, a woman seldom makes a move to give her a seat. It is the laboring man with a tin dinner pail at his feet,
or a salesman who has stood up continuously since 7 o'clock in the morning, who provides for the mother's rest, but the ladies who have been down town a couple of hours engaged in the arduous task of collecting samples of messaline, give her the stony stare.

Women know when they are well off and do not worry any about the odor of smoke and stale beer to which they may be subjected in cars containing men, if it is at the expense of having to give up their seats to a less fortunate sister.

A CUSTOMS COURT.

It is now proposed to attach to the tariff law a provision for creating a customs court of five judges. This attempt has been made before and defeated by the treasury.

The McKinley law created the board of general appraisers, the rate of whose salaries and the nature of whose tenure was designed to make them independent of the treasury department and make the board in everything but name a court. But without a constitutional provision it could not give these general appraisers absolute security in their tenure, and the treasury department soon reduced them to the level of department officials.

The supreme court upheld the power of the president to remove the members for political or personal reasons, and therefore the general appraisers had to take orders from the chief of the customs division of the treasury or resign. If another board is to be created it should have all the sanctions of the federal judiciary.

NON-SUCCESS.

Some men who have great skill in their particular work so manage their affairs that little comes of that skill.
They want capital, which they will get after a while; they need to be rid of certain other tasks before developing as they propose to develop;
they are going to get things started
next year all right—and then.

But they never do. They are not failures, exactly; they are non-successes.

Likewise, many dealers, with all the prerequisites of large development fall short in business stature because they do not use the instruments
within their reach.

They are going to advertise some time, but never do. They are not failures, exactly; they are non-successes.

Los Angeles is slow in arriving at the conclusion that it endures an unjust burden in being compelled to care for consumptives who are shipped out there without sufficient means to properly care for themselves. Dea-ver reached this conviction some time ago. Since the fact is becoming known that it is not climate so much as fresh air and plenty of nourishing food that builds up consumptives, the rush of such sufferers to the west and south has received a desirable
check.

Abdul Hamid took about a dozen of his prettiest wives with him into exile, but the rest of the inmates of the harem may have to go out and hustle for themselves. They are leaving the palace in bunches every day,
and some of them traverse the streets of Stambul for the first time. When sultans are deposed the former court favorites are about as consequential as a busted firecracker.

The new emperor of China, with all the wealth and power of oriental despotism to be his, cries day and night for the nurse from whom he has been taken. Here is an anti-climax of human greatness.

Only about 314 miles of frozen wastes remains to be covered to bring the explorers to both poles. But every mile can be a fearful distance when men are at the extreme limit of their endurance.

Some English statesmen are in favor of taxing bachelors in order to appease the suffragettes. We were under the impression that some of the English suffragettes were married.

A Maryland expert says that not one man in a thousand who eats terrapin knows whether it is the genuine diamond back article or not. Then, what difference does it make?

It is given out that President Taft's family is practicing economy and has discharged the servant girl. It seems as though Brother Charlie has called up that pre-election barrel.

The first crop of spring chickens gets its pick at the garden seeds. Too many people do not think of fixing the garden fence until the sprouts appear.

Lumber is becoming so high priced
that the man who discusses politics in the corner grocery store can not afford to whittle while he talks.

Sure, the packers are in the shoe business. Haven't they been furnishing sole leather in the form of steak
for years?

Despite the advance in flour, it is noticeable that there is more dough
than berries in strawberry short cake.

From the number of jokers in it,
the man who drew that tariff bill
should go on the lecture platform.

HE TOLD EDITOR STEAD SO AT THE TIME

A Few More Massacres in Which American Missionaries Fall a Prey to Moslem Mobs and Action May Be Taken.

By Editor Stead.
Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.
(Hearst News Service.)

London, May 8.—In 1898 Senator
Frye told me that he had done his utmost in Washington to induce the American government to send some warships to Constantinople to support the representatives of the other powers at the time of the Armenian massacre in 1896. He was supported by a large and influential section of the American people.

Twelve years ago the American fleet was in its infancy, and the Armenian emigration into the United States had not begun.

A few more massacres in which American missionaries fall a prey to the savagery of the Moslem mob, and I, for one, will not be in the least surprised to see the arrival of an American fleet in the Mediterranean, charged to see that such horrors shall cease.

KNIGHT-MARSHALL'S OPENING

Hardware and Vehicle Firm Begin
Business in New Quarters.

The opening of Knight-Marshall's
new store adjoining the hardware store on West Second street, Saturday, was a grand success, notwithstanding the very inclement weather.
Hundreds of people visited the stores and there was great interest in the buggy contest. At the closing hour last night a canvass of the cash purchases showed Sam Dameron, the contractor, in the lead, and he was awarded the buggy.

The new arrangement makes the stores the most commodious in the city, giving ample space for everything and providing a splendid repository for vehicles and implements.
There were twenty-six styles of vehicles—buggies, runabouts and surveys—shown on the floor at the opening, and large farm wagons. Upstairs in the new room were the implements —everything in season. Courteous attention was given every visitor and the hospitality of this prosperous firm was strikingly emphasized.

Preachers of all denominations occupied chairs upon the platform. They were giving their voices and influence to the overthrow of a political boss.
The Presbyterian clergyman had the floor and most vigorously attacked the enemy. He delivered some fierce, telling thrusts, and the audience was with him. The boss received some cruel jabs.

"That's right, soak him!" encouraged a man with a stentorian voice
who had standing room in the rear.
As the clergyman warmed up to his subject the interrupting "soak him!"
came from the rear with greater power
and frequency.

The speaker paused. He was not irritated, but gently threw the audience into a good-natured hysteria by saying:

"The intentions of the gentleman
in the rear are good, but wholly inopportune and ill advised. If he'll kindly reserve his comments for the next speaker, Brother Herrick of the Bapt-

Arrangements Being Made for Ladies'
Musical Club to Participate

In view of the fact that the numbers rendered by the Ladies' Musical club at the May festival at the Sedalia theater Friday night were so enthusiastically received, John T. Stinson, secretary of the Missouri state fair, is arranging plans so that the club members will take a prominent part in the sacred concert to be rendered at the state fair grounds on Sunday, October 3, the opening day
of the fair.

The concert will be given by Well's band, of St. Louis, but Secretary Stinson has decided that a greater interest will be shown if it is announced that Sedalia's own musical club will be the leading factor.

The plan adopted by Mr Stinson will no doubt receive the hearty sup-

FOR SMALL PASTRY SHELLS.

To Serve with Creamed Chicken, Oysters or Sweetbreads.

Have all ingredients for the pastry cold. Into a pound of flour chop three-quarters of a pound of firm, fresh butter, and, when like a coarse powder, wet with a teaspoonful of ice water and work with a spoon to a dough. Turn upon the floured pastry board and roll into a thick sheet, roll
this up as you would a sheet of music and roll out again. Fold once more,
roll out and fold and lay on the ice
for an hour, or as much longer as you can. When ready to make the shells, roll the pastry into a sheet a half-inch thick, and, with a cutter
such as you use in cutting out biscuit, cut into rounds. Pile these on top of each other three deep, and with a small cutter press half-way through each pile. Put into the oven and bake to a delicate brown. As soon as baked, lift the small round pieces from the top of each shell, this forms the top. With a small spoon scoop out the soft pastry from the middle of the shell, and this will leave the hollow center to be filled with cream chicken, oysters or sweet-breads.

AFTER THE SOLID COURSE.

Maple Charlotte Just the Thing to Serve for Dessert.

To make it, soak half an ounce of gelatine in cold water to cover, and dissolve by standing it over hot water. Place three tablespoonfuls of grated maple sugar in a saucepan and stir till melted; then add a pint of cream. When this mixture boils gently to creamy thickness and cools slightly, add to it the yolks of three eggs, with four tablespoonfuls of maple sugar, one teaspoonful of vanilla
and two tablespoonfuls of cold milk, beaten until light. Stir in the gelatine and set aside to become cold. Line a large mold or individual molds with sponge cake cut in thin slices.
Pour in the cream and cover the top of the mold with thin slices of the cake, garnish with spun maple sugar and whipped sweetened cream poured over the top cake. This dessert should be kept on ice two hours, at least, before serving.—Delineator.

AN EVENING OF MUSIC

THE FIRST OF SEDALIA'S MAY FESTIVALS WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

EVERY PARTICIPANT WAS AN ARTIST

Those From Abroad Pleased to the Very Utmost, While the Ladies' Musical Club as Usual Covered Itself With Glory.

For a number of years the Ladies' Musical club of this city has had in contemplation the establishing of an annual May festival, and Friday night these plans were realized by the giving of the first May festival. For sixteen years this successful club has had an annual spring concert which has been looked forward to as the musical and social event of the year, but these concerts were purely choral in their nature, with artists from the cities assisting. But Friday night's program was of an entirely different kind, the orchestra being the principal feature of the performance.

Prof. Johannes Goetze, of Moberly, Mo., who has conducted successful festivals all over the state, was called upon to furnish the orchestra and soloists, and right well did he fulfill his part of the work. Prof. Goetze has none but musicians of the first class in his own orchestra and these were supplemented by a number of artists and soloists from the St. Louis Symphony orchestra. Prof. Goetze is a fine leader and won his way to popularity by his fine conducting of the Weber Festival March and the Bach "Awakening of Spring." He was enthusiastically encoered and responded with a bright march. Rhythm and life characterize everything Prof. Goetze does as a leader, and he will always receive a hearty welcome from a Sedalia audience.

The soloists were all good. The vocal quartette did good work in the famous Rigoleto quartette and their response from Lucia.

The principal singer in this organization was unquestionably Mr. Grant Hadley, who is the possessor of a magnificent voice and fine dramatic style. The contralto, Miss Wellington, gave the well known berceuse from Jocelyn very sweetly and responded to an encore with the favorite ballad, "Bonnie Sweet Bessie." Mr. Walker, the tenor, sang Beethoven's Adieu in a pleasing manner, showing a good tenor voice with possibilities. It was a disappointment that the soprano, Mrs. Sturtevant, did no solo work, as her voice had made a pleasing impression in the quartette.

But that which captured the audience was the beautiful playing of Mr. Waechter, the violinist, and Mr. Anton, the cellist. Mr. Waechter's selections, the Canzonetta, by Strelezki, and "Perpetual Motion," by Rois were in strong contrast, but in each he showed himself a master of expression and technique. He played Achumann's "Traumerel" as an encore in a manner seldom heard. Though Mr. Waechter came to Sedalia unknown to many he has won for himself a place in the hearts of the people by his beautiful playing.

The player all knew by reputation and were looking forward to hearing was Mr. P. G. Anton, the famous cellist, and indeed everyone's highest expectation was realized. Never have we had in Sedalia a more magnificent soloist upon that sympathetic instrument, the cello, and he held his hearers spellbound. His encore was a tender little cradle song, which was played with sweetness and beauty of tone. Mr. Anton is a great cellist and will always receive a hearty welcome from a Sedalia audience.

A number of especial interest to home people was the beautiful Mendelssohn Trio given by Miss Emelie Goetze, who plays the piano exquisitely; Mr. Anton and Mr. Ben Clay, a former Sedalia boy, who is showing great ability as a violinist. The work was of a highly artistic order and the audience showed its deep appreciation by its wrapt attention and enthusiastic applause. Indeed the report would be incomplete without special mention of Miss Goetze's artistic work as an accompanist.

But one of the most popular numbers of the evening was the magnificent singing of our own Ladies' Musical club. Never did this splendid organization acquit itself better. The Schubert "Almighty" was truly grand, the great volume of tone from the singers being upborne by the splendid orchestral and piano accompaniment, filling the hall to its utmost. In striking contrast to this was the delightful "Spring Song," by Mendelssohn, with an exquisite string and clarinet accompaniment. This number was declared by all present to be the gem of the evening, and to an enthusiastic encore the club gave, unaccompanied, the old-time favorite, "The Swanee River," in an exquisite manner.

The Ladies' Musical club was led by its gifted president, Mrs. W. D. Steele, with Miss Jessie Smith, who played a fine accompaniment at the piano. There was a general regret expressed that the club did not do more singing upon the program.

The orchestra did fine work on the popular Cavallera Rusticana "Intermezzo" and the Grieg "Shepherd Boy," when Mr. Waters the famous clarinetist, played the solo part and was several times recalled.

As a finale one of Mr. Goetze's own compositions, "Grade Wie in Deutschland" of German folk songs, was given, which captured the audience.

The program was closed by the "Star Spangled Banner," which was sung by the musical club and accompanied by full orchestra.

The ladies are to be congratulated on the magnificent success of their first May festival. Over eight hundred people are estimated to have been in attendance. Never was a more representative and brilliant audience at an entertainment in our city.

The boxes were filled by the following society people: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cloney, W. F. Keyser, C. E. Messerly, W. H. Powell, W. E. Bard and guests, Mesdames Wilson and Woodson; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Crawford, E. J. Adamson and guests, Mr. and Mrs. George; Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Wood, Miss Ruth Wood and guest, Mrs. Bransford Lewis, of St. Louis; Hon. J. H. Boehwell, Miss Hawkins, Mr. Hogenfritz, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Ballard, W. H. Reynolds, Miss Hill, Dr. Camp, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mackey, L. P. Andrews, Hon. and Mrs. John T. Heard and their guests, Mrs. J. C. Van Riper and daughter, of St. Louis.

LOOKED PRISONERS OVER

Detective Identifies a Sedalia Arrest as Kansas City Crook.

Ralph E. Truman and J. L. Ghent, Kansas City detectives, on their way to St. Louis to identify stolen property, stopped off in Sedalia Saturday to identify, if possible, Arnette Patterson and Frank Brennan, alleged burglars, who were arrested here last week for possessing burglars' tools.

The two prisoners were handcuffed together and taken to the Missouri Pacific station where they were given a public "sweating" by the "slueths." Detective Truman identified Patterson, saying the latter had been in Kansas City, but Brennan, who appears to be the leader, is unknown to the two officers.

The detectives left at 4:30 o'clock for St. Louis.

Patterson and Brennan are each awaiting trial in criminal court on the foregoing charge, both having failed to put up the bond of $1,000.

POCKETS FULL OF MONEY

Supposed Beggar Had Plenty Currency When Locked Up.

Apparently a beggar and a vagabond, James Cassidy, a stranger in the city, who was given fifteen days in jail for disturbing the peace by Judge Rickman Friday, later proved to be about the wealthiest "hobo" who ever struck this city.

When taken to jail and while undergoing a searching process, Cassidy revealed the fact that he is not penniless, as every pocket in his clothing was found to contain money of all denominations, including gold. The aggregate amount of the money found in Cassidy's pockets was $75 and when Sheriff Henderson learned that fact he compelled the prisoner to pay the court fine, instead of serving out the sentence.

This Cassidy did and he was released.

ATTEMPTED JAIL DELIVERY

Prompt Action on Part of Sheriff Faulconer Foiled Prisoners.

A wholesale jail delivery at the county jail was nipped in the bud by the shrewdness of Sheriff Faulconer Thursday evening, says the Warrensburg Star.

Sheriff Faulconer had gone into the jail after supper to lock the prisoners in their cells and to make his usual night visit of inspection of the inclosure.

Near the water sink he noticed a newspaper fastened against the south wall of the building at the rear of the iron cells about four feet from the floor and on examination found a hole cut into the wall about six inches in circumference and within the thickness of one brick from reaching the outside.

But for the early visit of Sheriff Faulconer, which stopped progress on the work, there would no doubt have been a wholesale jail delivery before 9 o'clock Thursday night.

Every prisoner was promptly locked up and questioned as to who was guilty of cutting the hole. It finally developed that those most active in the plot were Arch Heard, Ike Yocum and Cecil Thomas.

Heard was convicted in the criminal court some time ago for forgery at Chilhowee and sentenced by Judge Bradley to five years in the penitentiary, with parole during good behavior.

Last week he disturbed the peace of his wife at Centerville, violating his parole, and he was again arrested and placed in jail to await the time to get a clear bill of health before he can be taken to Jefferson City.

Yocum is serving out a sentence for hog stealing and is an all-around bad man.

Cecil Thomas is a darkey who was recently convicted for burglarizing the Jewell bar.

That is the inscription on the banner which is carried at the head of a company of young women at Brunn, Moravia, who evidently believe that they will some day be called upon to defend their country. They parade every Sunday in a dashing uniform and carry rifles. Their marksmanship and soldierly bearing have won the admiration of the citizens, says an Austrian paper, and the officers of the Amazon organization say: "We feel proud of our 'men.'" In Serbia women have also formed military organizations, but these are not only for target practice and exhibition drills, but for home defense. A picture recently received in this country shows a non-commissioned officer drilling a squad of women, composed of housemaids, shop-girls and factory employees. They stand at attention, the firearms in strange contrast with skirts, aprons and plumed hats.

A CHANGE OF PANEL

Citizens' National Bank Presents Another Beautiful Engraving Today.

This morning there is a change in the series of artistic advertisements now being run by the Citizens' National bank.

The new panel represents two allegorical figures of Wisdom, represented by demi-goddesses of the classical Greek period, supporting a text-bearing tablet of dignified outlines. The women are draped in the loose and flowing garb of the times of Pericles, a band of silver or gold encircling the crowns of their shapely heads. Both are holding flaming torches emblematic of light and enlightenment.

Those who like to see something really attractive should turn to page 2 and see this advertisement.

LADIES

We wish to call your attention to the DANIELSON'S SWEDISH DYES. These dyes are used for dyeing Flowers, Plumes, Velvets, Laces, Silks, Veiling, Woolen and Cotton, Horsehair and Straw Goods; also Shoes, Gloves and Hosiery. Will not take the curl from Plumes or injure the most delicate fabric. For home dyeing it is the quickest and easiest process; you simply dissolve the dye in gasoline and immerse the article to be dyed.

Call at the store and we will be pleased to show you color and explain them further.

HAD POLITICAL AT-HOME

MRS. IVOR GUEST WAS HOSTESS AT REMARKABLE FUNCTION IN LONDON.

NO FEWER THAN 4,000 INVITATIONS OUT

Was the "Smartest Event" Since Easter in the Metropolis—Some of the Costumes That Were Worn at Reception.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel. [Hearst News Service.]

London, May 8.—Many American women, titled and untitled, attended Mrs. Ivor Guest's political reception at Wimborne House, which was the big function of the season since Easter. No fewer than 4,000 invitations were issued. The guests included the Premier, all the cabinet ministers and ambassadors, all the liberal peers and liberal members of the commons.

Mrs. Guest received her guests, the premier standing beside her.

The hostess wore a robe of gold and white brocade, with hanging gold tassels at the side. The corsage was draped with old Venetian lace. A small diadem of diamonds crowned her coiffure and her neck was encircled with a rope of splendid pearls.

The Duchess of Roxburg wore a gown of liberty satin, with a pearl necklace and a tall diamond tiara. Lady Evans, wife of the solicitor general, wore a smoke-colored chiffon Directoire gown, a high diamond tiara and a pearl and diamond necklace.

Mrs. Charles Henry, who was Miss Lewisohn, of New York, looked beautiful in a dress of white embroidered net over gold tissue, the skirt bordered with a deep band of gold, a high belt of gold encircled her waist and she wore a tall diamond and pearl comb, resembling a tiara, and two row pearl necklace.

Lady John Leslie, who was Miss Jerome, of New York, wore a white satin Directoire with pearl ornaments.

Mrs. Cornwallis West wore a black gown, with silver embroidery. She looked very youthful, although she will soon be a grandmother.

Lady Channing wore a black chiffon over silk, with pearl ornaments.

Madame de Dominguez, of San Francisco, wore a Directoire gown of pale blue champagne, with pearl and diamond ornaments.

Mrs. Anthony Hope wore a Directoire gown of sea green chiffon, with emerald ornaments.

Lady Listerway wore a white satin gown, trimmed with duchess lace, a low tiara of pearls and diamonds and a diamond necklace.

UNUSUAL COURT PROCEEDING

First Suit of Kind Ever Filed in Randolph County.

Mrs. Nora Broadwater, by her attorney, W. P. Cave, today filed in the circuit clerk's office, the only suit of its kind ever brought in this county, says the Moberly Democrat.

On August 21, 1900, the plaintiff's husband, Sidney Broadwater, a Wabash engineer, was killed at Kansas City.

The plaintiff brought suit soon thereafter against her company for $5,000. It was tried in the circuit court here and a verdict given the plaintiff for the full amount asked.

The Wabash appealed the case to the United States court at Hannibal, but that court not having jurisdiction the appeal was then taken to the supreme court of Missouri.

After seven years in court, that tribunal, on May 15, 1908, handed down a decision reversing the lower court—and most everybody thought the case had been disposed of finally and against the plaintiff.

It seems, however, that Attorney W. P. Cave has discovered a statute forgotten or not known to most lawyers, by which the suit may be renewed, and under the provisions of this statute he has now entered suit against the company for $3,000. The case will come up for trial at the June term at Moberly.

UNIFORMS HAVE ARRIVED

Sedalia Team Will Now Wear Their Own Suits.

The uniforms for the Sedalia Brownies baseball team arrived Saturday and during the day were on exhibition at E. E. Johnston's clothing store.

The suits are of gray material with blue trimmings. The caps resemble those worn by the Philadelphia team.

The Brownies and the Urich, Mo., team will cross bats at Liberty park at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, provided the weather permits.

H. V. Leist will umpire the game and the following is the line-up for the opposing team:

Blevins, 1b; Wicks, 2b; Armstrong, ss; Duval or Brown, 3b; Rogers, p; Schilder, c; Stewart, lf; Collins, cf; Miller, rf.

REPORT SEEING SEA SERPENT.

Fishermen, Residents of a "Dry" Town, Declare They Saw Reptile in the Pacific.

Guy Griffith, James Harvey and three other fishermen who were out in the launch Reta, report that when 18 miles off the coast they sighted a sea serpent 40 feet long, with a brown head as big around as a man's fist. The serpent is said to have moved its head from side to side as a snake does, and had a big dorsal fin 15 feet back of the head.

The fishermen say the same monster has been reported within the last few months near the Philippines and along the northern coast of this country.

They furthermore aver that a heavy sinker, which one of the five threw at the sea serpent as the boat was pulling away from the unsafe neighborhood, was caught in the creature's mouth and spit back with such force as to make a deep dent in the fish box on deck.

"Never saw such a spitter," said one of the men; "just like a young cannon." Long Beach is a "dry" town.—Long Beach (Cal.) Dispatch to the New York World.

"EVENT OF THE SEASON"

THIS IS WHAT OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN PROMISES FOR "ELEKTRA."

THIRTY PERFORMANCES ARE TO BE GIVEN

All the Past Week the Opera Manager Sat in Empty Play House Listening to Singing of Ambitious Singers.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel. [Hearst News Service.]

Paris, May 8.—Oscar Hammerstein has left Paris for Berlin to meet Strauss and conclude arrangements for the New York production of "Elektra."

"It will be the event of the season," he said. "I expect to give thirty performances. As to my Elektra I have not quite decided. I should like to have Miss Marcell. Of course, she is now under a three years' contract at Vienna, but that will not stand in the way if I make up my mind that she is the best singer for the part."

All the week Hammerstein has been sitting in state in the empty opera house listening to ambitious singers. One young woman, fearing that she had not been seen to advantage, insisted that the lights be turned up. "Never mind," Hammerstein shouted, "I can see pretty women in the dark."

The young woman was not engaged. "I have found a tenor who has the most beautiful voice in France," said Hammerstein. "His name is Campagnola."

"Did you sign him?"

"No," replied Hammerstein; "unfortunately his nose is too long."

M. Messager, who is less critical, has taken Campagnola for the Paris opera.

ENTERTAINED FOR BIRTHDAY

Little Miss Helen Conkle Observed Her Eleventh Anniversary.

Miss Helen Conkle, of 1402 East Tenth street, very pleasantly entertained a score of her young girl friends from 2 to 6 Saturday afternoon, in honor of her eleventh birthday. Games were played, in which Katherine Rast won the prize, a box of bon bons, and in drawing the lucky number Beatrice Beasmore drew the prize, a pretty vase.

Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and cake and fruit.

There were a great many presents given the young lady, and all departed wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Among those present were: Ada Beckley, Lota Tomer, Katherine Rast, Florence and Beulah Wilson, Irel Hurley, Florence Guyer, Velma Musick, Mary Williams, Daisy Cronan, Sarah Woody, Winnie Wood, Mildred Franklin, Julia Gardner, Florence Tegler, Beatrice Beasmore, Edith Regan, Birdie Henderson, Meleta Murrell and Bertie Williams.

Mrs. Conkle was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mamie Knaus.

F. G. Conkle served the ice cream and also saw to the fact that F. G. got the largest dish.

GIRL WAS CRUELY TREATED

Despondent, She Took Her Own Life—Testimony Bad for Mother.

Hearst News Service.

Hammond, Ind., May 8.—From facts brought out at the inquest held over the body of 16-year-old Olga Bornar, who took her life at Whiting last evening by drinking strychnine, it was elicited that the girl had told her chum, Helen Wilson, that her mother had made her go without food for three days and had made her sleep in the basement of her home four nights. Arrests will follow.

WILL ADDRESS UNION MEN

Rev. Grant A. Robbins to Lecture to Them Sunday, May 16.

The Rev. Grant A. Robbins, pastor of the First M. E. church, will deliver a special lecture for the union men of the city at the church edifice Sunday night, May 16. He had not selected his subject Saturday.

A general invitation to all union men of Sedalia has been extended to attend the lecture and it is probable that many of the labor organizations will attend in a body.

At the annual conference of the Methodist church last year the ministers of that faith decided to deliver annually a sermon in the interest of union men and this year will be the first time the plan has been put into effect.

The Rev. Robbins is one of Sedalia's most able and enthusiastic orators, has a kindly feeling for the interest of union men and his discourse of the forthcoming night will doubtless be heard with interest by everyone in attendance.

The manufacturers (which, by the way, are the largest in America) sent us more than two score "approval" trunks and bags to start off this new venture with the entire line they manufacture. Rather than ship these back to them, and in order to introduce our large department to many, we have decided to give an all inclusive reduction of 20 per cent on everything in this section. THIS DISCOUNT IS IN EFFECT, BEGINNING MONDAY, AND FOR ONE WEEK ONLY.

THE BUREAU OF BEAUTY

CHAPTER ON CARE OF MOUTH AS WELL AS PRESERVATION OF ONE'S TEETH.

DR. HEBRA ON A THEME THAT IS TIMELY

If You Follow the Advice That He Gives You'll Not Have Bad Molars, Pale Gums and Breath That's Offensive.

By Dr. Hebra.

Written for the Democrat-Sentinel.

Besides the red lips and the gums, the teeth, in particular, are an ornament to the mouth. Unfortunately, there are but few persons who can boast of a perfectly healthy set of teeth, which is found as a normal condition only among savages and animals. The chief causes of the admitted fact that most persons have some defect in the mouth—bad teeth, pale gums, offensive odor—lie in part in our civilization with the injection of hot and sometimes sour food, and in the lack of attention bestowed upon the mouth by so many people.

The care of the mouth is more important after meals and in the morning. Particles of food lodge even between the most perfect teeth, and undergo rapid decomposition in the high temperature prevailing in the mouth. This gives rise to a disagreeable odor and the decomposition quickly extends to the teeth. Perfectly normal teeth consist of a hard, brilliant external coat, the enamel which opposes great resistance to acid and decomposing substances. But, unfortunately, the enamel is very sensitive to changes of the temperature of the mouth and cracks easily, thus admitting to the bony part of the teeth such deleterious substances and leading to their destruction.

The bulk of the tooth consists of a porous mass of bone which is easily destroyed and thus the entire set may be lost. In this article we will offer to the public means by which a healthy set of teeth may be kept in good condition, and the diseases arrested in affected teeth, and by which an agreeable freshness is imparted to the gums and lips.

The hygiene of the mouth is a necessity, since it has to deal with the health and preservation of the important masticatory apparatus which is necessary to the welfare of the whole body, so that the aesthetic factor occupies a secondary position, or rather result, as a necessary consequence from the proper care of the mouth.

With no other hygienic articles have so many sins been committed as with those intended for the teeth. We have had occasion to examine a number of tooth powders, some of them very high priced, which were decidedly injurious. Thus, we have known of cases in which powdered pumice stone, colored and perfumed, has been sold as a tooth powder. Pumice stone, however, resembles glass in its composition and acts on the teeth like a fine file, which rapidly wears away the enamel and exposes the frail, bony substance. It needs no further explanation to prove the destructive effects of such a powder on the teeth.

Many persons prize finely powdered wood charcoal as a tooth powder, and to some extent they are right. Wood charcoal always contains alkalies which neutralize the injurious acids, besides traces of products of dry distillation which prevent decomposition.

But these valuable properties are counteracted by the fact that charcoal is always more or less gritty, or, being insoluble, will lodge between the teeth and form the nucleus for the lodgment of other substances.

In compounding articles for the mouth and teeth—tooth powders and mouth washes—the objects aimed at are to neutralize the chemical processes that injure the teeth and the gums and to restore freshness and resisting power to the relaxed gums and mucous membrane.

Remnants of food left in the mouth after meals soon develop acids which attack the teeth. They are neutralized by basic substances or alkalies which counteract them. The formation of organic acids from food remnants are caused by microscopic fungi which adheres to the teeth (so-called tartar) in the absence of cleanliness. Against these substances there are at our disposal a number of substances which kill them rapidly and thus for a time arrest the process of decomposition. They are called antiseptics.

Compounds of the tannin group which strengthen the gums are known as astringents. There are but few tooth powders or washes on the market which combine several substances embodying the above properties. They generally incorporate but one, and many consist of aromatics alone, which merely perfume the mouth without any hygienic effect whatever; the large majority of so-called secret preparations are mere humbugs.

Articles for the care of the mouth and the teeth may be divided into tooth pastes, powders, tinctures, lotions and mouth washes. We include a formula for each:

Tooth Soap.

Soap, one-fourth pound; talcum, one-fourth pound; orris root, one-fourth pound; sugar, one-eighth pound; water, one-eighth pound; oil of cloves, 19 grains; oil of peppermint, three-fourths drachm.

Camphorated Chalk Tooth Powder. Prepared chalk, one-half pound; camphor, one-eighth pound; powdered orris root, one-fourth pound; powdered cinnamon, one ounce.

Myrrh Tooth Tincture. Mace, one and one-half drachms; myrrh, one ounce; cloves, one ounce; rhatany root, one ounce; alcohol, one and one-fourth pints.

Chloral Mouth Wash. Chloral hydrate, one-eighth ounce; water, one and one-fourth ounces.

Visit a reputable dentist at least twice a year and have your teeth carefully examined. It pays.

SUCCESS TO C. B. C. PUPILS

SEDALIA INSTITUTION RECOGNIZED ALL OVER THE UNITED STATES.

STENOGRAPHERS GET GOOD POSITIONS

More Pupils Placed Last Week and Efforts to Better Old Pupils With New Positions Finds Them Doing Well.

Central Business college, Sedalia, Mo., is making a remarkable record for this time of year in placing pupils in first class positions.

A large number of pupils are recognizing the fact that to attend Central Business college and stay until graduated means success, hence pupils have been enrolled recently from seven different states.

It pays to employ the very best teachers that can be employed, men who have had actual business experience, at high salaries, in the subjects they are teaching. Men who are selected, regardless of cost, from the brainiest and most successful business men, who are apt to teach.

The following pupils have been placed in good positions the past week, most of them at $60 and $65 a month to start with:

W. E. Bridestine, stenographer, Kansas City, Mo.; Miss C. L. Miller, stenographer, St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Lena Soursley, stenographer, Morris Bros., Sedalia, Mo.; E. U. Peniston, stenographer, Sedalia, Mo.; Light and Fuel Co.; Lizzie Akers, stenographer, Kansas City, Mo.; Cecil Greer, telegrapher, Kansas City Southern railway, Gentry, Ark.; Frank Roesch, stenographer, Helping Hand Institute, Kansas City, Mo.; C. R. Jenkins, stenographer, St. Mary's Gasoline Engine Co., Kansas City, Mo.; T. H. Brown, bookkeeper, Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., St. Louis, Mo.; Joe Heller, stenographer and bookkeeper, Beacon Paper Co., St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Mary I. Blins, stenographer, Dubuque, Ia.; Sadie Miller, stenographer and bookkeeper, St. Louis, Mo.; Ed Seviars, stenographer, White's Collection agency, Sedalia, Mo.

Central Business college has failed to fill one application for stenographer at $65, and two at $60 per month on account of not having young men in school far enough along to take the positions.

Several telegrams were sent by Mr. firm where he can be gaining knowledge all the time of business affairs as they are transacted in the most systematic, business like way, hence will be on the high road to success.

The young man who will attend this institution and will apply himself will get a start with a first class business firm where he can be gaining knowledge all the time of business affairs as they are transacted in the most systematic, business like way, hence will be on the high road to success.

WILL MEET HERE JUNE 1-2

The Young People's Presbyterian Convention.

The Presbytery of Sedalia at its recent meeting at Jefferson City authorized the formation of a Young People's Presbyterian union and appointed a committee to arrange for the first annual convention, to be held in Sedalia on June 1 and 2. It is the aim of the committee to make the program as practical as possible.

Rev. Willis L. Gelston, of Philadelphia, head of the department of young people's work of the Presbyterian church will be present; also Rev. C. B. Boying, of the First Presbyterian church, of Hannibal, Mo., and last year president of the State Christian Endeavor union. Several other prominent speakers have been invited, besides a number of workers in Sedalia Presbytery. A full program will be mailed soon. The convention will open Tuesday, June 1 at 8 p. m., and close Wednesday night.

Delegations from every young people's organization in the Presbytery, whether Christian Endeavor guild, boys' club, or whatever its nature, and also from every church where there is no young people's organization are invited. Entertainment will be very cordially provided by the young people of Sedalia.

WILL VISIT NEW ORLEANS

President Today Promised to Attend Convention There in November.

Hearst News Service. Washington, May 8.—E. S. Conway, of Chicago, representing the Association of representatives from the Deep Waterways association, called on President Taft today and urged him to attend the convention of the association in New Orleans in November.

President Taft accepted the invitation, although it is likely the date of the convention will be changed so as to conform to the president's return trip from the Alaskan exposition. The president was also invited today to attend the Lincoln day celebration at Springfield, Ill., in 1911.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

A LAWYER BRINGS SUIT TO RECOVER SUM OF HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources For the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Theodore P. Shonts, Paul Morton, J. Y. Morton, Robert Mather and William C. Brown have been made defendants in a suit for $100,000 begun in the municipal court of New York city in the name of Otto Gresham, administrator of the estate of John S. Cooper, deceased, and is based on legal and other services rendered by the late Attorney Cooper to the defendants in the purchase of the stock of the Indiana, Illinois and Iowa railroad company.

The plaintiff alleged that the capital stock of the railroad was valued at $6,000,000; that $5,000,000 of it was owned by Francis M. Drake, and that Attorney Cooper made it possible for the defendants to purchase Drake's stock for $3,000,000.

It is alleged that later the stock was sold to the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad company for $4,750,000. Attorney Cooper's services are valued at $100,000 by the plaintiff.

Mr. McKee Returns Home.

George McKee, general superintendent of motive power for the Mobile and Ohio railway, and wife, who came here Friday to bury his mother, departed Saturday afternoon for their home in St. Louis.

Years ago Mr. McKee was an engineer on the M. K. & T. railway out of this city, but he has risen in the railway world until he now holds a splendid position and ranks with the ablest men in his line of railroad service in the west.

A week ago Mr. McKee was at Okolona, Miss., where he visited J. J. Reiley, a former Missouri Pacific engineer here, who is now foreman of the M. & O. shops at Okolona and is getting along splendidly.

It always gives the Democrat-Sentinel pleasure to chronicle the advancement of Sedalians and former Sedalians.

Katy Hospital Record.

During the month of April thirty-eight Missouri Pacific employees were treated at the M. K. & T. railway hospital. Twenty-nine of these were for medical treatment and nine for surgical attention.

Seventy-six company employees were registered at the hospital yesterday, sixty patients having been admitted during the month of May.

Since January 1, this year, 1,444 M. K. & T. patients have been treated at the company hospital.

Missouri Pacific Fined $500.

The Missouri Pacific was found guilty in five counts Friday in the federal court in Kansas City of violating the law providing for the use of safety devices on railroads. A fine of $100 was placed against the company on each count. Each case was that of a car with a defective coupling device.

The Wabash was fined $100 for violating the law which provides that cattle shall not be in transit for more than twenty-eight hours.

Ex-President of the Katy.

F. N. Finney, ex-president of the M. K. & T. railway system, who has been sojourning at Pasadena, Cal., passed through Sedalia on the "Katy" flyer Friday night, on his way to St. Louis from Parsons, Kas., where he met his son, Supt. N. J. Finney, of this city.

The elder Mr. Finney has retired from the railroad world, and is now devoting his time to extensive traveling.

Back to Work Monday.

Will Croff, chief clerk in the Missouri Pacific train dispatcher's office, who has been in Chicago undergoing medical treatment, and who returned home Friday, expects to resume work tomorrow, relieving Al Bryan, who will resume his duties as yard telegrapher.

Night Ticket Agent Here.

C. W. Watts, of Fayette, arrived here Friday night to assume the duties of night ticket agent for the M. K. & T., succeeding Earl Eckhoff, who left last night for Muskogee, Ok., to become third assistant ticket agent for the company.

MR. CARTER, OF CLARK, DID NOT SUCCEED

Attempts Fail to Cut Money Given for State Fair, Naval Reserves, N. G. M. and for Improvement of the Mansion.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 8.—The house ordered to engrossment Friday the general appropriation bill and a number of special appropriation measures. Several "watchdogs of the treasury" strove to scale down some of the general appropriations, but failed in each instance, the house standing by the recommendations of the appropriations committee.

Chairman Lloyd, of the appropriations committee, had a busy time defending his measures. The sums allotted to the national guards, naval reserves, state fair and to the governor for improvements at the executive mansion, and for a team and carriage, were subjected to attacks.

Mr. Carter, of Clark county, tried to reduce the naval reserve appropriation from $5,000 to $2,000. Mr. Lloyd protested. He told the house that the citizen sailors of the Huntress were no jokes and should not be considered as such.

He said that inland cities should make peace certain by preparing for war, as do the coast cities.

"The naval reserves ought to have $15,000, but we haven't the money," he said.

Mr. Carter then tried to cut out a $40,000 appropriation for a machinery building and a women's building on the state fair grounds at Sedalia. Again he failed. Then he objected to a $17,000 appropriation to purchase additional ground for the state fair. For the third time the house sustained the appropriations committee.

Mr. Lyles, of Shannon, protested against giving the governor $1,000 with which to purchase a carriage and horses. Chairman Lloyd contended that Missouri should furnish its underpaid governor a carriage. The house agreed with him. Mr. Lyles then sharpened his pruning knife for the $25,000 appropriation to build a new kitchen and otherwise to improve the executive mansion.

It also stood the test, however, and went through when Chairman Lloyd, who is a contractor and builder, declared the mansion unsanitary and in great need of repairs.

Like failures met Mr. Taylor when he tried to trim the adjutant general's contingent fund from $10,000 to $5,000.

The total appropriation in the general revenue bill is $3,087,711.98, of which $1,328,700 will be derived from the fees paid to the various departments for which appropriations are made in the bill.

The general deficiency bill, with amendments, will total $774,515.09, covering money already expended. Included in the latter measure is an item of $1.75, due the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. by the supreme court. The reading of this appropriation caused general amusement, the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. having recently paid the state $50,000 in fines assessed by the supreme court.

Representative Holcomb's motion to appropriate $25,000 to ventilate the chamber of the house of representatives and the state capitol was voted down. Chairman Lloyd giving an expert opinion that the money would be wasted and that the plan would be impracticable, because of the building's construction, a statement that proved a good argument for the new capitol bond issue, which was approved later by the house.

J. W. Evans, of the secret service department of the Katy, returned over the Missouri Pacific at 4:25 o'clock Saturday afternoon from a business visit at Holden.

Patrick O'Connell, a Missouri Pacific engineer, is confined to his home on East Broadway with a scalp wound, sustained by a piece of coal striking him on the head.

Harry Dev, a Missouri Pacific conductor, is enjoying a fishing visit at McBaine, Mo., and Conductor Witherston is filling the place. H. G. Wilson is working for the latter.

N. J. Hartley, a Missouri Pacific carman, who has been bedfast with an abscess, left last afternoon for Columbus, Ind., his home, where he will remain until he recuperates. He was accompanied by his brother, Mead Hartley, who came here after him.

Frank Myers, a former Sedalian, now braking for the Texas and Pacific out of El Paso, Texas, was visiting friends here Friday, and went to St. Louis that night to visit his father, John Myers, who is a patient in the Missouri Pacific hospital.

LOOK FOR A REVOLUTION

THIS IS PREDICTION OF NAPOLEON OF THE FRENCH LABOR AGITATORS.

COME IN FEW WEEKS OR MAYBE MONTHS

Criminal Posed as a Count and Was Catered to at a Swell Restaurant—The French Navy Is in Bad Shape.

By Paul Villiers.
Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.
(Hearst News Service.)

Paris, May 8.—"We shall have a revolution in a few months, if not in a few weeks." Such is the declaration made by H. Pataud, the "Napoleon" of the French labor agitators. To those who asked him if he really meant what he said, he replied: "I stand by every word."

The advance guard of the Confederation Generale du Travail have formed themselves into a separate group under the title, "Revolutionary Federation," and in a declaration of their principles they state that they desire the "abolition of the oppression of all classes," and they recognize in a general strike a means of disorganizing society and "emancipating the proletariat."

The Federation Revolutionaire is the declared enemy of all power in the hands of the state. It claims the right of revolt for individuals as well as communities, and urges that its members use every means—street demonstrations, military strikes, violent expropriations and insurrection—for a radical destruction of capital and the ruin of the legally established classes.

Alarmed at the revolutionary propaganda, the general councilors of several departments have called a special session for the purpose of drawing up a letter to the government, imploring it to take stern measures to save the country from the disasters which are being prepared for it "by a handful of evil doers."

A man in rags and list shoes stopped a motor-taxi yesterday near the Arc de Triomphe and said: "My name is Count d'Abbeville. I have just wagered fifty Louis that, just as I am now, I will get dinner in a smart restaurant. There will be five Louis for you if you help me to win the bet. The chauffeur entered into the fun of the thing, and drove the 'count' to an expensive restaurant at Montmarie. There he gave the landlord the tip, and the 'count' was served with the best of everything, and treated with the utmost deference, not a waiter appearing to notice the state of his clothing.

When the time came to call for the bill, the "Count d'Abbeville" said: "I have not a sou. I have just come out of prison on ticket of leave. Take me to the police station."

The landlord, the waiters and the chauffeur roared at Monsieur Comte's

FATE'S POSSIBILITIES

BY EDWARD F. MCSWEENEY.

Before we pass judgment on the unfortunates who have gone down in the struggle with the world, we should remember that in every person's life there comes a day when some small circumstance, followed by a series of unexpected accidents, brought a crisis never contemplated, with the result that frequently only the sheerest kind of good luck prevented a life being spoiled and oftentimes the worst happened.

It is related of John Bunyan, author of "Pilgrim's Progress," that one day coming to a place where a malefactor's body was hanging from a gibbet, he said to his companion, "But for the grace of God there might hang John Bunyan." Henry Ward Beecher said once in a famous sermon delivered to a body of prisoners, that but for fortunate circumstance every man he knows might be among those he was addressing.

The writer recently had occasion to spend Sunday with a friend in charge of a great New York penal institution, in which are confined more than a thousand delinquents for minor offenses, such as drunkenness, disorderly conduct, street walking, etc.—the weak, not the wicked. At the divine service held on Sunday morning, about 400 men and 300 women prisoners were in attendance. Dressed in the regulation striped uniform of the prison, with faces scrubbed until they shone, most of the prisoners bore the marks of drunkenness, dissipation and disease; the lack-lustre eyes, the blue-white lips, were the sign of their condition; here and there the hectic flush and constant hacking cough indicated a victim of the white plague; only a few had the clear eyes, the upright carriage and firm set of the head on the shoulders which told of vigor and health. The general impression of the composite face was one of dogged despair, the result of an uphill, hopeless struggle against adverse circumstances; of weakened will power, lost ideals and shattered ambition.

As individual faces were studied, however, startling resemblances to well-known people, and even to personal friends, were noted. On the third bench was a counterfeit presentment of a well-known professional man; nose, eyes, teeth, everything but the expression of the face were identically the same. The professional man is clever, generous, cynical, a lover of good time and what goes with it; it is easy to conjecture where these qualities carried to excess could make the difference in condition between the successful doctor and the prisoner in stripes.

On a near-by seat, another prisoner was a duplicate in facial appearance of a prosperous Boston business man who is as hard as nails in his dealings with humankind; scrupulously honest, but with none of the milk human kindness, exacting what is his to the last farthing; what he claims is conscience is only an excuse to take the last penny in his debtor's till. In the convict's face, brutalized and exaggerated, were the cruel lines of the business man's face; it was easy to imagine how the qualities which had brought one man wealth, if not esteem, had been twisted and made the criminal, described by the official in charge as a cruel husband and heartless father who had shown all the qualities of a human brute.

Many good women who hold their heads high would not be flattered by their physical replicas on the women's side, morally and physically weakened by evil living, but with tendencies which, properly used, led in one case to happiness and prosperity, and improperly in the other to prison and shame.

As the convicts filed back to their cells, one of the writer's companions called attention to a prisoner passing by and said, "If that chap were dressed in your clothes he would make an exact double for you," which brought the moralizing to a personal plane, and increased respect for the wisdom of the old prophet, who said that our destinies are decided by nothing, a small imprudence helped by some insignificant action, as an acorn is fertilized by a drop of rain, may raise the trees by which we and others depending on us may be crucified.

In this connection an interesting story is told about the great artist, Leonardo de Vinci, whose painting, "The Last Supper," is known all over the world. For lack of suitable models, it took De Vinci many years to complete this painting. One of the first figures was that of Christ, the artist having found a young man who in every way typified his conception of the Savior. As he came across models whom he could use for the Apostles, he painted them in, but for several years found no acceptable model for the Judas. One day he met on the street a man whose repulsive and criminal look made him a suitable subject, who consented to go to De Vinci's studio and sit as the model for the Judas. As he posed, something familiar in the model's appearance caused the artist to ask if he had ever met him before, which elicited the astonishing but true reply that he who now posed as Judas had previously been painted as Christ, an unfortunate mis-step and its consequences having the difference.

As a cure for over-confidence and self-esteem, to teach clarity of thought, forbearance in judgment, and especially to warn against the first wrong step, a visit in a proper spirit to any prison or reformatory is one of the best investments of time the ordinary individual can take.

good joke, and to keep up the fun all went with him to the police station. There the joke was found to have more point in it than they thought, but a different one from which they had expected. The Count d'Abbeville had been very humorous at their expense in a literal sense. He proved to be only Jules Duval, several times convicted, and he was perfectly correct in saying that he had not a penny and had just come out of Fresnes prison. He has now gone back to jail. In republican France anyone seems able to swindle anybody by calling himself a count.

The revelations concerning the unpreparedness of the navy, as may be imagined, a subject of lively comment. People are hearing of these things for the first time; they are marveling why such wanton waste, such lack of foresight on the part of those responsible for the efficient upkeep of the marine have not been exposed before now.

But it is not news to some critics that there are no guns or shells, that the arsenals are empty, that the battleships are badly constructed. It is recalled that Admiral Germinet said the same things five months ago. He described the real condition of the navy in a few sentences.

On that occasion the admiral pointed out that the most of the vessels had the necessary stock for three hours' combat, and that there was not in the arsenals all the necessary provisions for victualling.

For ten or fifteen years, added the admiral, there have not been complete stocks at the port. It is also recalled that M. Ferrand, the engineer in chief of the marine, declared that everything was lacking, while M. Chaumont reported to the chamber on the naval budget, summed up the position thus: "We are in an alarming situation."

Even M. Picard, the present minister of marine, notwithstanding the ministerial reserve, declared, "New battleships must be put on the slips, otherwise our position will become humiliating."

"We forget things too soon," says the Echo de Paris in this connection. "In a few days we shall have forgotten that the deputies now inquiring into the condition of the navy are looking for our battleships, guns and shells and have found nothing."

M. Picard has sprung a surprise on Cherbourg. The Maritime Prefect had engaged a room for a traveler, and when the manager of the hotel asked the name he was informed that he would know it soon enough. At the moment the hotel manager was making this inquiry M. Picard was actually in the hotel and in bed. The minister visited the naval hospital, arsenals and the ships, and made voluminous notes on the condition of the port.

Beethoven is to be honored in Paris, a committee being in formation to set up a monument to him which is now completed, and which is the work of a young sculptor, M. Jose de Charnoy, who is of English nationality, as he was born in Maribus, though of French descent.

The artist first became known to the general public a few years ago by his original and powerful status of the poet Baudelaire. His Beethoven is a colossal monument. The gigantic figure of the composer, draped in simple folds, is half reclining on a slab of stone supported by four genii, whose faces wear different expressions.

One seems straining at some physical or mental effort, another is suffering, the third is in fear, but the fourth is placid and serene. The face of Beethoven, which was finished by the sculptor only after years of study, is full of power and character. The whole monument has force and simplicity. It will be erected, announces the critic, M. Arsene Alexander, in some wooded park, in memory of what Beethoven once said, "I prefer a tree to a man."

THE UNREST IN TURKEY

EGYPT IS SAID TO BE FEELING THE EFFECT OF IT AT PRESENT TIME.

STEPS ARE TAKEN TO PREVENT OUTBREAK

At Religious Festivals by Mohammedans—Outwardly All Is Calm—Garrison at Cairo Is Kept Under Arms.

Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.
(Hearst News Service.)

Cairo, May 8.—The Islamic unrest in Turkey is becoming manifest in Egypt and India, and important events may be looked for in the near future.

Here all is outwardly calm, but there is a strong undercurrent of excitement and unrest. At all the various Mohammedan festivals and celebrations the authorities take secret but effective steps to check any trouble that may arise. At the festival of the Moulid el Nebi three fire engines were held in readiness at Abbassia to dampen any excessive enthusiasm that might have been displayed and an exceedingly strong force of police was within call in case of trouble, which was certainly expected. The smallest altercation was promptly suppressed, and the police kept the crowds in strict order.

A great demonstration was arranged for the return of the khedive the other day, but he had been taken into confidence by the authorities and at the last moment, instead of coming to the main station at Cairo, he went direct to his palace at Koubeh, thus thwarting the nationalist plans. The garrison here is kept constantly under arms, and military guards are always on duty at all the government offices.

Meanwhile, the nationalist press keeps up its campaign against the government and the British and openly incites the people to rebellion.

All the news of riots, outrages and seditions in India is prominently displayed in the nationalist organs, with laudatory remarks whenever any incident occurs. The India sedition mongers are referred to as heroes, and there is obviously an understanding between them and the Egyptian nationalists.

Tuberculosis

THE GREAT IMPORTANCE OF ITS EARLY DIAGNOSIS.

MANY SUFFER FROM THIS DISEASE AND ARE NOT AWARE UNTIL TOO LATE.

The number of persons who are daily carrying around with them the germs of this most dreadful of all diseases are almost legion. The farther and farther the great scientist of the day progress in their investigations of these poisonous elements that are threatening to depopulate the earth, the more amazed and appalled they become at their startling discoveries. They, one and all, concur in the fact that the ordinary method employed by the average physician in waiting until some of the vital organs are attacked, is lamentably weak, and radically wrong. They strongly advocate the revolutionizing of the whole field of medicine as practiced today, for it is entirely too broad and complicated for any one mind to master. They recommend specializing each branch, for it is the specialist who devotes all his time to a particular class of conditions that produces results that is in keeping with the advancements and evolution of the world.

For the benefit of those who are interested in the subject, The Dr. Camp Medical Co. herewith presents a few of the many symptoms that are very indicative to the trained specialist that a nucleus of this disease is hidden away in some of the deeper structures of the body and only await a favorable opportunity to attack the Lungs or some other vital organ. This is what is called closed Tuberculosis or the masked variety. The early symptoms of this class of cases is a disturbance of the circulation of the nervous system of digestion and assimilation. The face frequently changes color; they are easily excited, are tired in mind and body, have little appetite, restless at night, bowels may act irregular, with irregular or painful menstruation in the female, associated with brittleness of the nails, dryness of the hair and skin; they become irritable with a very inconsistent pulse rising from 70 to 100 or more on the least bodily or mental excitement. A microscopical test of the blood and other secretions shows to the expert the unmistakable signs of tubercular destruction. Such cases if unchecked usually continue until a complete breakdown occurs when nature tries to eliminate the poison with a cough attended with all the pronounced symptoms of quick consumption. If the early history of some of the causes are inquired into, we find that some time in the past they had an attack of malaria which was in truth the beginning of Tuberculosis, the same applies to spells of pleurisy, and last, but not least, the after effects of the "Grippe," which is unfortunately a frequent cause. Tuberculosis of the throat, enlarged tonsils, the stomach, the bowels, and the enlarged glands of the neck are all varieties of this class of cases with varying symptoms according to the progress of the disease. Many cases present themselves with Tuberculosis written all over them, whose blood tests show they have reached an advanced stage of the disease unnoticed. This applies most especially to children and young adults. Another class of cases begins with a hacking cough or more or less catarrh of the nose and throat, with an occasional pain in the chest, inability to breathe deeply without coughing, loss in weight, indigestion, cold hands and feet, night sweats. The most important symptom in this class where there is no cough or hoarseness is loss of appetite, indigestion, brightness and enlargement of the pupil of the eye at times, particularly in the young.

The above are a few of the most prominent symptoms that should cause alarm of the existing evidence of the GREAT WHITE PLAGUE—CONSUMPTION, and if you have cause to believe that such a condition exists, or are in doubt, you should immediately seek the best medical aid obtainable ere you fill an untimely grave.

THE DR. CAMP MEDICAL COMPANY offers you the best there is in modern medical science for the cure of such conditions.

Their Famous Inhalatorium Treatment for Germ diseases has gained a wide reputation. Many come from a distance to avail themselves of this remarkable cure. Hundreds who had almost lost hope have been restored to health and are now happy and well.

HADLEY RAPS HAGERMAN

HE BRANDS ATTORNEY'S STATEMENT TO McPHERSON AS AN UNTRUTH.

NEVER PROMISED DISMISSAL OF CASES

Asserts That, on the Contrary, He Refused to Request Jones to Quash Suit—Synopsis of the Statement.

Jefferson City, May 8.—Statements about the rate litigation made to Judge McPherson and United States Attorney General Wickersham by Frank Hagerman, of Kansas City, general counsel for the eighteen Missouri railroads, are pronounced unqualifiedly false by Governor Hadley in a statement issued Friday. His manifesto follows:

"Frank Hagerman's statement before Judge McPherson yesterday that I had written him a letter agreeing to dismiss Mr. Jones' injunction suit against the railroads and failed to keep my agreement is as unqualifiedly false as was his statement to the attorney general of the United States that 'every preliminary injunction against the rate laws was issued by the consent of the state.' The only letter I ever wrote Mr. Hagerman on this question was on April 21, and that letter is as follows:

"It is still my idea that there will be no occasion to continue the St. Louis cases on the docket, but if I should decide otherwise a full opportunity will be given you and your associates to take such action as you may wish to take."

"I wrote this letter in response to a request from Mr. Hagerman and because at that time it was my understanding that all the railroads intended to abandon the combination upon which the suit was based by putting into effect a 2½-cent rate. On the 23d of April, when some four or five roads announced that they intended to carry out the combination as originally made, I telephoned to Mr. Hagerman that I would not ask Mr. Jones to dismiss the case."

"While the question of what I did or did not say to Mr. Hagerman is not of particular importance, I do not propose to have my word questioned in this controversy any more than I intend to permit any unwarranted interference by the federal courts with the authority of the officers of the state of Missouri, or any injustice being done to the people of Missouri, if it is within my power to prevent."

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

We want to show you in this short, but honest and reasonable talk, how and why S. S. S. cures Old Sores. We do not claim that S. S. S. works wonders, but we do know it will cure sores and ulcers, and its record of forty years past abundantly justifies this confidence.

Any old sore shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it of unhealthy matter from the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. Along spell of fever, or other sickness, breeds disease germs in the system; the failure of nature's eliminative members to remove the waste and refuse matters of the body, the excessive use of minerals in certain diseases, infected wounds, bites and stings of insects, etc., all contaminate the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later manifest their presence by a sore or ulcer which refuses to heal under the ordinary treatment of local applications.

External treatment can never cure a chronic sore or ulcer, because it does not reach the blood. The place will remain open as long as it is used as a drainage for the impurity which is in the blood, and in addition to the worry and anxiety caused by an old sore, there is always danger of its becoming cancerous, if a cure is not effected. Purify the blood, and nourish the flesh with a rich, healthy circulation, and then the place will heal of its own accord.

S. S. S. cures old sores by removing the causes which produce them. It goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and poisons, and by nourishing the flesh with rich, pure blood causes the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but, being the greatest of all blood purifiers, it begins at the bottom and by rebuilding broken down tissue, and supplying healthful, healing qualities to the circulation, causes the place to fill in with firm, healthy flesh, while it steadily but surely removes the cause and effects a permanent cure. The sore cannot remain when the blood is pure, and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

BAD SORE FROM AN OLD WOUND.
I want to recommend S. S. S. to any who are in need of a blood purifier, and especially as a remedy for sores and obstinate ulcers. In 1871 I had my leg badly cut on the sharp edge of a barrel and having on a blue woolen stocking, the place was badly poisoned from the dye. A great sore formed and for years no one knows what I suffered with the place. I tried, it seemed to me, everything I had ever heard of but I got no relief and I thought I would have to go through life with an angry, discharging sore on my leg. At last I began the use of S. S. S., and it was but a short time until I saw that the place was improving. I continued it until it removed all the poison from my blood and made a complete and permanent cure of the sore. A complete and permanent cure of the sore. A complete and permanent cure of the sore. A complete and permanent cure of the sore.

A CANCEROUS ULCER.
I had a large sore or ulcer on my face and nothing I tried would benefit me. It began with shooting pains and soon the itching was terrible. At first it discharged a watery fluid, but soon changed to one of thicker composition and the pain became very severe. It was nearly as large as a dollar and terribly inflamed in all the surrounding parts. It had been there so long and growing worse all the time, I became very much discouraged and alarmed. At last I began the use of S. S. S. At first the ulcer seemed to get worse, but I soon found that the poison was being removed from the blood and I continued to take S. S. S. It was not long before I noted a decided improvement and I kept up the use of the medicine until I was entirely cured of this cancerous ulcer. This has been some time ago and there is no sign of a return of the trouble.

POISONED FROM INSECT BITE.
From the bite of an insect I was poisoned and had a dreadful sore on my ankle and took different treatments with no benefit. I was induced to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles it cleared my system and cleansed my blood and cured the sore. My mother took it for rheumatism, with success. I cheerfully recommend S. S. S. where a blood purifier is needed.

GERMAN CROWN PRINCE

HAS MADE HIS FIRST TRIP AS A COMMERCIAL TRAVELER
FOR HIS COUNTRY.

A SECRET VISIT WAS MADE BY ROYALTY

The German Emperor Tarried Several Hours With Emperor Francis Joseph, Despite the Many Denials.

By Malcolm Clarke.
Cable to the Democrat-Sentinel.
(Hearst News Service.)

Berlin, May 8.—The German crown prince, who for the past eighteen months has been undergoing a regular course of training in the "kaiser ship," has made his first trip as commercial traveler for his country, a role wherein he is expected also to follow the illustrious footsteps of his father. His imperial highness' first destination was Bucharest, whither he went to present the emperor's congratulations to King Carol, of Roumania, on the occasion of the latter's 70th birthday.

It was the kaiser's original intention to dispatch his second son, Prince Eitel Friedrich, on this mission, but it was subsequently decided to clothe it with deeper significance by sending the crown prince.

His imperial highness remained in Roumania a week. His visit was regarded both in Berlin and Bucharest as an event of the first political importance, calculated to place a fresh and timely emphasis upon Germany's benevolent interest in the Balkans.

Next the crown prince, who was accompanied as far as the frontier by the king and crown prince of Roumania, left for a week's visit to Emperor Francis Joseph at Vienna. The main object of his imperial highness' trip to the Austrian capital was to make a call of courtesy upon the aged emperor-king, and enjoy a few days' hunting at Schoenbrunn with the Archduke Franz Ferdinand, but recent events make it certain that the crown prince's presence was meant as a demonstration of Austro-German might and brotherhood.

The Berliner Zeit am Mittag learns from Vienna that, despite categorical denials, the statement remains in persistent circulation that the German emperor, immediately before the intervention of the mailed fist in St. Petersburg three weeks ago, made a strictly incognito visit of several hours' duration to the Emperor Francis Joseph at Schoenbrunn.

Alleged precise details of the kaiser's arrival are vouchsafed by "excellent informed persons." The kaiser arrived at Schoenbrunn, so goes the story, in the early hours of the morning in the swift motor car of his friend, Prince Max Egon zu Fürstentberg, who had brought about the secret interview between the two emperors. When the meeting was over the Emperor William was conveyed to a remote railway station near Schoenbrunn, whence he was en route to Potsdam without attracting the attention of anybody but peasants.

Reviewing in the Kukunft recent political events at home and abroad, Herr Maximilian Harden writes:

"Dreadnaught, that must be the watchword of German policy, as it was in Bismarck's days. We need fear nothing, if we are determined not to yield to pressure from without. The Balkan controversy has taught us that nowadays even the colors of determination frighten the enemy; that one who shows he is determined to fight can quickly bag the booty which could be won only on the bloody field of battle. There would have been no strife over Morocco if we had remained a firm, and the German nation would have been spared humiliation and the secession of unreliable allies. He who would win must also dare.

"But the ice is broken. Germany is respected once more as the strong and courageous military power, which is not to be bullied by threats or by fears or bound by chains of roses. Dreadnaught. Look about you. Whom has the German to fear? He is invincible, unless he surrenders himself. And since he knows that, he is also determined not to tolerate an hour longer a government which swallows meekly undignified presumption from foreigners."

For some time it has been announced that the Russian general naval staff was considering the removal of the Baltic fleet base from Kronstadt as being too dangerously near St. Petersburg in case of war. Various other points were considered, among them being Narva, in the Baltic provinces; Sveaborg, the island fortress near Helsingfors; Poskala, a promontory at the southwest corner, and Bjorka, in the gulf of Bothnia.

It is definitely asserted that Sveaborg and Helsingfors have been finally selected to be the future Baltic headquarters. A sum of 240,000,000 roubles is to be spent on new docks, barracks, etc., and work will commence forthwith. Contracts have been signed the past week for the purchase of large areas of land on the shores of Helsingfors.

Sveaborg was, until its capture by the British during the Crimean war, the principal Russian naval base in the north. It is an island, five miles due south of the Finnish capital, on the principal buildings of which its guns are always trained. Helsingfors is nine hours from St. Petersburg by train.

A story of an American duel, of which the victim was a merchant named Hirschi, comes from Budapest. Hirschi was the principal of a firm of timber merchants. He was only 21 years of age, but had reached a high position in the commercial circles of Budapest.

He made the acquaintance of a wealthy merchant's daughter of Ipsolyszag, and fell in love with her. Her father, however, refused to give his sanction to the marriage on the ground that she was a year older than her admirer.

The girl married another man, to the despair of Hirschi. He called upon her in order to say farewell, and during the interview threatened to commit suicide. Afraid lest he should carry out his threat, the woman followed

BANK FUNDS ARE STOLEN

THIS TIME IT IS EMPLOYE OF THE MERCHANTS-LACLEDE IN ST. LOUIS.

CLERK CHARGED WITH $9,500 PECULATION

Prisoner Pleads That Needs of Home Required Him to Go Wrong—Expects to Be Able to Give Bond of $10,000.

St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—Peculations amounting to $9,500 and extending over a period of four years were admitted yesterday by Charles G. Swafford, a bookkeeper of the Merchants-Laclede National bank.

Swafford waived preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Chase Morsey, on a warrant charging embezzlement, and was held under $10,000 bond to await the action of the federal grand jury. Swafford expects to be able to give bond.

He is the fourth St. Louis national bank employee who has been arrested on similar charges within the last three months, and claims that he was driven to take the money by family needs.

He was known as a man who dressed plainly, with simple tastes and methodical habits.

It is the theory of William Desmond, of the Desmond National Detective agency, who arrested Swafford under orders from a bonding company, that the bookkeeper has all the larger part of the money hidden away, as he does not believe a man of such habits could have spent so much.

Swafford says he has spent all of the $9,500 and holds to that figure, although the bank officials have thus far discovered discrepancies of but $8,800 in his books. The checking up of the books has not been completed, however.

Got Off With Light Sentence.

St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—Michael J. McNamara, a former policeman, was assessed two years in the penitentiary by a jury in Judge Fisher's court Friday for killing his wife, Nellie, in the Royal hotel at Eighteenth and Olive streets August 23, 1906. McNamara, at the same time, shot and killed James Brophy, a former bartender, but he was tried only on the charge of killing his wife. At a former trial McNamara was given a sentence of fifteen years.

and in the case of larger seeds a half pint should be submitted. The name and address of the sender should always be written in the package of seeds and a letter should accompany it stating whether simply a purity test is desired or both a purity and germination test.

It will be possible with this arrangement for farmers to send for samples from various seed dealers, and send these to Columbia for test and then buy on the results of this experiment. It will be no longer necessary, therefore, for farmers to buy seeds containing various pernicious weed seeds without knowing what they are buying. The seedsmen will thus be more careful in the kind of seeds they send out, and the whole effect will be to improve the seed conditions of Missouri. Reliable seed houses will welcome such control of the seed business.

The Missouri farmer can no longer afford to buy a poor quality of seeds at a low price. Poor seeds are, as a rule, not only worthless in many cases, but may be very dangerous from the pernicious weed seeds they carry, and it is much cheaper to pay a good price for good seeds than a low price for poor seeds.

It is hoped, therefore, that Missouri farmers and seed dealers will take advantage of this opportunity and know exactly the quality and the character of the seeds they handle. The experiment station will gladly assist in the procuring of good seeds wherever it is possible.

Samples should be addressed to the Seed Laboratory, Columbia, Mo., or to M. F. Miller, Agricultural Experiment Station, Columbia, Mo.

WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FEDERATED CLUBS AT SPRINGFIELD, MO.

MRS. E. M. SHEPARD CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Mrs. W. R. Chivvis, of St. Louis, Defeats Kansas Cityan for Vice President—Delegates Suspected Politics.

Springfield, Mo., May 8.—That the ways of woman are not fully understood was clearly demonstrated in the election of officers of the Missouri Federation of Women's clubs here last afternoon, when Mrs. Edward M. Shepard, of Springfield, was chosen president by practically a unanimous vote.

When the names of Mrs. George J. Frankel, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Walter McNabb Miller, of Columbia, were presented to the Federation last Thursday night, the delegates from the country towns of the state thought they saw in the movement a clever ploy on the part of the St. Louis delegates to divide the vote of Mrs. Shepard between the St. Louis and the Columbia woman and thus bring about the defeat of Mrs. Shepard.

When the ballots were counted Friday afternoon it was found that Mrs. Shepard had received a total of 123 votes and that Mrs. Frankel and Mrs. Miller had received only one each. Six blank ballots were deposited. The total indicated that both the St. Louis and the Kansas City delegations had voted solidly for the Springfield woman, after having nominated opposing candidates.

Mrs. W. R. Chivvis, of St. Louis, defeated Mrs. W. L. Bell, of Kansas City, for vice president by a vote of 79 to 59. The St. Louis delegation defeated Mrs. Bell by throwing its full strength to Miss Marie Goodman, of Kansas City, for the position of recording secretary, to which place she was re-elected by a vote of 75 to 48 over Mrs. George Still, of Kirksville. The other officers chosen are:

Corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. P. Bradley, of Springfield; treasurer, Miss Alice Kinney, of New Franklin; auditor, Mrs. Richard P. Bland, of Lebanon; general federation secretary, Mrs. J. H. Motley, of Bowling Green. The last two officers named had not been placed in nomination, showing that all states previously prepared had been frustrated.

Delegates to the National Federation of Women's clubs were chosen as follows: First district, Mrs. Levi E. Tracy, of Chillicothe; Second district, Mrs. K. Morgan, of Kansas City; Third district, Mrs. Mackey, Talma; Fourth district, Mrs. Dempsey, Bowling Green; Fifth district, Mrs. Sallie Potter Sneed, Sedalia; Sixth district, Mrs. Edward M. Shepard, Springfield; Seventh district, Mrs. Norman Gibbs, Mt. Vernon; Eighth district, Mrs. J. S. McGehee, Cape Girardeau; at large, Mrs. George J. Frankel, of St. Louis.

Pineules are for Backache, and bring quick relief to lumbago, rheumatism, fatigue and all other symptoms of Kidney diseases. They are a tonic to the entire system and build up strength and health. Price 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. E. Bard Drug Company.

CARL HALE IS ACQUITTED

Was Charged With the Murder of a Woman.

Atchison, Kas., May 8.—At 6 o'clock last night the jury in the Carl Hale trial returned a verdict of not guilty, after having been out two hours. Carl Hale is the 17-year-old boy who was charged with the murder of Mrs. Jerome Hoover, on March 2.

As soon as the foreman of the jury had announced the verdict, a shout went up from the spectators in the court room, and the boy, then no longer a prisoner, rushed forward to shake hands with the jurymen. Tears of joy trickled down his cheeks.

Mrs. Ida Hoover, wife of Jerome Hoover, was found dead at her home three miles southwest of this city. A bullet wound was found behind one of her ears. Because Carl Hale had been seen on the Hoover premises that day with a rifle in his hand he was arrested on the charge of murdering Mrs. Hoover.

At the time of his arrest he denied having the rifle on the day of the killing, but on a subsequent Sunday he confessed to having fired four or six times at several shriveled peaches on a tree that stands two feet from the east side of the Hoover house, and admitted that one of the bullets may have passed through an open window and killed Mrs. Hoover.

NEW CAPITOL BUILDING

THE ISSUANCE OF $5,000,000.00 IN BONDS PROVIDED—GOES TO VOTERS NOW.

URGED BY GOV. HADLEY IN A MESSAGE

Present Structure, Completed in 1840 at Cost of $350,000, Inadequate—A Brief History of the Present Building.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 8.—By a vote of 90 to 22 the house passed the senate joint and concurrent resolution for the issuance of $5,000,000 in bonds for the erection and equipment of a new state capitol.

These bonds are to bear interest at the rate of 3 per cent, payable in thirty years, and will not increase the present rate of taxation. The resolution does not require the signature of the governor, but, having passed both branches of the assembly, will be submitted to the voters at the ensuing regular election.

Governor Hadley sent a special message to the house, urging the passage of the resolution, into which he incorporated some interesting historical data concerning the present capitol, reviewing the loss occasioned by its burning seventy-two years ago, and reciting briefly some of the needs for a new building.

History of the Building.

The message, in part, follows: It has been said by those who pretend to know that the state of Missouri has the finest executive mansion and the poorest capitol in the Union. While the statement may not be entirely correct, it is true that many states which rank far below Missouri in population and wealth have a larger and better capitol.

The first capitol was built upon the site of the present executive mansion, being begun in 1823 and completed in 1826, at a cost of $25,000. It was constructed of brick and was designed for the temporary use of the legislative and executive departments, with the idea that later it would be used as a residence for the governor. But in 1837 this building was destroyed by fire, together with the accumulated records of seventeen years. The present capitol, or that portion of it exclusive of the north and south wings, was begun in 1838 and completed in 1840, at an expense of $350,000. The two wings now occupied by the senate and the house were added in 1887.

Inadequate for Purpose.

The building as at present constructed is entirely inadequate for the executive and legislative departments. Only recently it has become necessary to provide quarters in the old supreme court building for a number of the departments. Every official who now has quarters in either the capitol or the old supreme court building is in need of additional room. There is not a strictly fireproof vault in the entire building, and any day

GREEN RIDGE NEWS NOTES

A Few Paragraphs Whittened by Editor W. H. Crisman.

The Green Ridge Local News of the past week had the following paragraphs:

At the meeting of the Pettis county court, last Monday, our popular furniture dealer, George R. Shelley, was appointed justice of the peace in and for Green Ridge township, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Fred E. Ream from the township.

Miss Eva Upton has been employed by the board of education of the Knapp school, to teach their school the ensuing term. Miss Eva graduated from the Green Ridge High school this week, receiving the highest honor of the class. We predict a successful year for the Knapp school.

The editor of this paper has as great need for money as anyone, perhaps, but a chance to contract for $25 in advertising for a St. Louis brewer was turned down without the least compunction of conscience this week. We regard this an advance movement to install themselves against the influence of the country press, but we cannot become a party to it, even for pay.

The board of education, of Green Ridge district, at its meeting on Wednesday evening of this week unanimously elected the following teachers for the coming scholastic year: Principal, S. J. Holloway; assistant, Miss Lenora McClymond; first intermediate, W. A. Wharton; second intermediate, Miss Gertrude Calvert; primary, Miss Charlotte Kyd.

Bradley's Visits Are Seldom.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 8.—Judge Nick Bradley, of Johnson county, formerly a member of the state senate, was invited to address that body Friday.

"When I was a member of the senate," he said, "there was talk of $1,000 bills, but I have heard no such talk about this legislature. Do you know," he said, jocularly, "that I have not been in Jefferson City since I was summoned before the Cole county grand jury."

THE GUN CLUB SHOOT

It Was Held at Liberty Park Friday Afternoon.

The weekly shoot of the Sedalia Gun club was held at Liberty park Friday afternoon.

Fred Hoffman and John McGrath tied for first honors, each making a score of 23 out of a possible 25. Owing to the lateness of the day they did not shoot off the tie.

Dr. J. E. Cannaday was second, with a score of 22 out of a possible 25. J. B. Brown, Mont Thatcher and Joseph Paradis tied for third honor, with a score of 21 out of a possible 25.

Mont Thatcher, J. R. Linabery and F. E. Hoffman, Jr., tied for the Dupont trophy, scoring 23 out of a possible 25. On shooting off, Hoffman won, entitling him to compete for the trophy at the end of the season.
